Services to be Held at New York and Utica.

Tributes of the Character of their Colleague by Public Men.

The Dead Senator.

UTICA, April 18.—Mrs. Conkling and Oakman were kneeling at the side of Roscoe Conkling, when the latter died. Conkling had her hand in his. She left the room when the dead Senator was carried into her room and fell ex- hausted in the lounge.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The funeral will be held over the dead body next Friday morning in Trinity church. Twenty-fifth street. Rev. Dr. Hall will officiate, assisted by clergymen. Friday afternoon the body will be taken on a special train to Utica, where funeral services will also be held at Conkling's late residence pre- vious to interment.

It was decided that the funeral services in Utica will be held in Calvary church Friday afternoon instead of at 10 o'clock. The city pall bearers to- morrow morning were: Chauncey L. M. Barlow, Chauncey Depew, Clarence A. Seward, Marble, Senator J. C. Spooner, Don Cameron, William Walter S. Church and Frank- lin Murphy. The body was in charge of an undertaker and placed in the casket.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The United States court, city court and other courts adjourned to-day out of respect to the memory of Conkling. Addresses were made by several judges.

It was rumored that Conk- ling suffered from internal troubles, and death was caused by abscesses in the stom- ach discovered. Dr. Barker has no truth in such rumors; the organs were healthy and sound.

UTICA, April 18. The interment will be at Utica, where the principal services will be held next Sunday. Flags in this city are at half mast, accommodating many in the city and from Washington and Brooklyn. Flags are flying from the city hall and other public buildings. A thousand or more telegrams and letters of condolence have been received.

STATE OF PUBLIC MEN.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Among the comments of prominent public men on Conkling are the follow-

General Dickinson—He was a man of great mental power, of extraordinary intellect, his influence upon the history of his country.

Senator Sherman—Senator Conkling de- serves to be remembered by the grateful mem- bers of his party for the lofty in- tegrity and high character of his official life and public services.

Senator Conkling—I never knew a man better equipped than he for the duties of the senate, and in my opinion, no man was ever qualified for that duty has been in half a century. His long public career pre- sents no blot upon his integrity.

Ashley and Endicott and Postmaster-General Dickinson spoke in com- mendatory praise. Secretary Fair- child, of Conkling's by mar- riage, said the funeral

Senator Conkling was one of the greatest of our country. His intellectual activity

Chairman—I have the highest respect for the ability and pers- onal character of Senator Conkling. I never knew of him but what was a man of high figure and honest.

Commander Brunde. He was one of the most able men I ever knew.

A Bloody Tragedy.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 18.—A spe- cial to the Intelligencer from Charleston says: A report has reached here that a man in Calhoun county, who was away selling cattle on returning home late on Wednesday in company with a neighbor discovered a light in a window, and when he looked in saw his wife and three children lying dead on the floor. He also saw four men in the room. The peddler drew his revolver and was told to make no noise at the back of the house. The men inside rushed out and three of them were killed outright, the fourth being badly wounded. It is impossible at pres- ent to verify the story but the man who brought it is considered reliable.

Agricultural Legislation.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The house committee on agriculture at its meeting this morning received briefs of the at- torneys on the oleomargarine investigation and agreed to take up the bill for final action at the next meeting, one week from to-day. The committee also fixed Saturday for a hearing of arguments on the Hatch-Enloe bills, prohibiting specu- lation in farm products on boards of trade. The question of the constitu- tionality of the propositions will be argued by attorneys representing the leading boards of trade of the country.

Switchmen Go Out.

CHICAGO, April 18. The switchmen who work nights in the south branch yards of the Northwestern road struck to-night and the eight or ten engines which usually work in the yards along Sixteenth street from the river to West- ern avenue were idle. The principal grievance of the men was stated to be a change in yardmasters. So far as known the matter has no connection with the Burlington trouble. Thirty men are out.

Damage by Flood.

WINONA, Minn., April 18.—The loss to the manufacturing interests of this city by the flood is estimated at $100,000. One company loses 6,000,000 feet of logs, valued at $30,000, making the loss to the lumbering interest along $250,000. The river is four miles wide here. At Tempeleau, Wis., while five Indians were endeavoring to [illegible] a raft of logs, the logs parted and all were drowned.

The Louisiana Election.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18.—As reported last night Nicholls and the rest of the democratic state ticket were elected by from 20,000 to 50,000 majority. The count in the city is progressing slowly. Enough is known however to show al- most beyond doubt that the young men's democratic ticket has been generally suc- cessful.

Another Attempt.

BOSTON, April 18. In the house of commons this afternoon Richmond Hon. Edward Hemeare moved the passage of a bill to legalize marriage with a deceased wife's sister. The motion occasioned a sharp debate but was finally carried by a vote of 283 to 182.

A Town Under Water.

WEYAUWEGA, Wis., April 19.—The vil- lage of Fremont is almost under water. Stores are closed, the goods having been removed to places of safety. Families have taken to the upper stories of their houses.

Offered the Presidency.

DENVER, April 18.—A Washington special to the Times says: Rev. Wil- liam F. Slocum, of Baltimore, has re- ceived an offer of the presidency of Col- orado college at Colorado Springs, and will probably accept.

The Brewers' Lockout.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The secretary of the Master Brewers association said to night that 2500 were now at work, of which 1273 were old men. The number locked out Monday was about 5000.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Dr. Agnew died yesterday afternoon in [illegible].

Indications for Colorado—Warmer, followed by cooler, generally fair weather, light to fresh variable winds.

The German bundesrath yesterday voted to expel from the country Born- stein editor, Gothelar, publisher, and two sub editors of the Social Democrat.

The president vetoed the bill for the relief of Major Daniel N. Bush, paymas- ter United States army. The object of the bill is to release Paymaster Bush from all liability to the government for loss, by theft, of $7,350, which was en- trusted to him for the payment of United States troops at various points, of which one was Fort McKinney, Wyoming.

COLORADO RATES.

Lower Rates from the East Go Into Effect To-day.

A Cut Made Under the Fort Worth Reduction.

The House Votes to Establish a De- partment of Labor.

A Bear Speculator in Grain Badly Squeezed.

Colorado Freight Rates.

CHICAGO, April 18.—A reduction of through rates from New York, Chicago, St. Louis and the Missouri river to Colo- rado points goes into effect to-morrow on all railroads. This is the result of a meeting of managers at Kansas City on Tuesday, the object being to meet com- petition of the new Ft. Worth and Den- ver road, which in connection with the Morgan line of steamers at Galveston made through rates from New York to Denver about 25 per cent. below those of the transcontinental routes. Under the new arrangement the first and first class freight from Chicago to Colorado points will be $1.20 instead of $1.45, and a proportional reduction is made on other classes. Lumber rates will be 95 cents from Chicago and 87 cents from the Missouri river. The new rates ap- ply to both east and west bound busi- ness.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—In the senate an order was made that it was made from the committee on foreign relations on Sir Lyon's motion for consideration of the fisheries treaty in open session. It is understood this action was taken on a motion by Frye, that Edmunds, chair- man of the sub committee on fisheries be instructed to report the treaty back to the senate with the opinion of the committee that it ought not to be rati- fied, and that he be requested to secure as prompt action as possible upon it.

The land forfeiture bill was taken as unfinished business, and at 2 o'clock the Dakota bill came up and Sherman took the floor in support of the bill. He re- plied in an impassioned manner to Mr. Voorhees allusions to unfair methods in the election of President Hayes. He claim- ed that every [illegible] that proceeding had been repelled, and that it stood in history as a matter in which the republican posi- tion could not be impeached.

Sherman showed by the vote in the senate that the electoral commission bill was not a republican but a democratic measure. Twenty-six democrats had voted for it and only twenty-one repub- licans, while the votes against it were fourteen republicans, including himself, and one democrat (Mr. Eaton, of Con- necticut). Democrats were therefore precluded from assailing the measure. He declared his full conviction that Hayes had been fairly and legally elect- ed, and that if by some hocus pocus Tilden had been inaugurated, he would have been illegally elected. He explained the inconsistency of Packard not getting the governorship of Louisiana, by show- ing that that was subject to local laws and decision, and declared his convic- tion that Packard had been illegally de- prived of his office.

HOUSE.

Belmont introduced a bill to prohibit the coming of Chinese laborers into the United States. Referred.

The conference report upon the bill authorizing the president to arrange a conference between the United States and South and Central American republics, Hayti, San Domingo and the em- pire of Brazil. (To submit a tolls-free-coin measure) was agreed to.

The bill to establish a department of labor was passed.

The bill to create boards of arbitration for the settlement of controversies and differences between inter-state com- mon carriers and their employes was considered in committee of the whole.

O'Neil briefly explained the provi- sions of the measure.

Parker of New York and others op- posed the bill as being weak and insuffi- cient.

Buchanan and others favored it. The committee had avoided providing for en- forced arbitration because it meant en- forced awards, and this was going too far. The debate finally drifted into a tariff discussion which continued some little time. Finally, on motion of Can- non the sixth section, which provides for the appointment by the president of boards of arbitration, was amended by substituting the words "commissioners" for "arbitrators" and "decision" for "award."

The committee rose and the house ad- journed.

A Speculator Squeezed.

ST. LOUIS, April 18.—Mose Fraley, a leading speculator in St. Louis grain markets, announced his inability to meet further margins, and is now on the floor settling his deals. Last night he stated to friends that he had put up $500,000 in cash and would be unable to put up more. Checks given yesterday after banking hours failed to pass the clearing house, but to-day Fraley said funds were forthcoming to take them up. He has been the leading bear of the market in the past year, and is short in large quan- tities of all grains. The failure is for more than half a million. Fraley says he will pay dollar for dollar.

There was quite a flurry on change this morning when it was announced that Mose Fraley was endeavoring to make a settlement. It was learned that he was short about two million bushels of May corn in St. Louis and two and one half million stood in Chicago, and about three million and one-half short on July wheat in St. Louis and Chicago, having sold when the market advanced to 84½ and 84½ respectively. While this morning it was 82½ and 83½ respectively. He effect- ed his settlement at 82 cents for corn and 82½ to 83 for wheat, and at 11 o'clock an- nounced that he was out both in St. Louis and Chicago.

In the wheat deal he was short to Gen. D. P. Grier about half a million bushels of corn, and when asked for a settlement he was offered 34 cents below Chicago prices. The usual difference approaches 3 cents. When Fraley appeared in the pit he found a disposition on the part of some of the bulls to bid up, and it was freely stated that an effort was being made to squeeze him to death. General Grier declared that he had nothing to do with such a move. He said he was com- pelled to follow the market as he was "long" and "short" in Chicago and was Commodity in London.

LONDON, April 18.—The Times' special cable from London says: Some 300 literary [illegible] scholars, dilettanti, Shakespeare-an blue stockings from Gir- [illegible] ladies from Belgravia, who [illegible] clever people, filled Westminster town hall this evening, where, under the auspices of the Bacon society, Prof. Ig- natius Donnelly, for the first time on the English lecture platform expounded his iconoclastical opinions regarding the au- thorship of Shakespeare's plays. The lec- ture contained nothing but what has al- ready been published. The audience listened with great interest, and some show of sympathy to a portion of the lecture, but when Mr. Donnelly com- menced to expound the process by which he obtained his primal numbers, or text factor they visibly drew back with courteous but rather careless exception. This fol- lowed the deciphering process, as ex- [illegible] and [illegible] by the enthusiastic cryptogramist, but they had very little heart in the process and not an atom of belief. I heard on all sides such comments: "It's very clever, very American, most Chicago- an, but few seemed to take the argu- ment in earnest or conceive that Prof. Donnelly meant them to.

The President's Printing.

WASHINGTON, April 18. O. L. Pruden, assistant private secretary to the presi- dent, was before the house committee on printing to-day to explain the circum- stances connected with the binding of President Cleveland's marriage certifi- cate to the government printing office. Pruden said the certificate a very elabo- rate and handsome one, had been given up by himself and taken to the public printing office, where it had been bound in elegant covers. It had been delivered to the president several months after the marriage. The president knew nothing of the bind- ing until recently when he had been told about it by Mr. Richardson, chairman of the committee on printing. Pruden fur- ther said it had been customary to have private work for the president done at the government printing office during past administrations, but that when Pres- ident Cleveland discovered the fact he had ordered the practice discontinued.

The Irish Issue.

WASHINGTON, April 18. The house got much worked up this afternoon over the bill to create a board of arbitration to settle labor disputes. A bill creating be- [illegible] and it [illegible] Taylor. The former had said the way to aid laboring men was to pass the bill. Taylor said the Irish who were always complaining of British oppression were too ready to fight England's battles. They were found fighting them in India and he feared there were too many Irish here in this country and in this house de- ceived by the cry of the democracy and ready to fight against our interests in fa- vor of free trade England. Tarsney assumed that Taylor said there were too many Irish in the country, and made a very vigorous reply, and for a time there was much confusion.

A Cashier Pap Outrage.

CHICAGO, April 18.—A Times special from New Albany, Ind., says: A band of White Caps last night took James Seebers, Robert Brownfield and Mrs. Nancy Wilson from the woman's house, stripped them and tied them to a tree. The men were given [illegible] each, the blood being drawn at every stroke. The men fainted several times, but water was thrown upon them and they were [illegible] cited only to be again lashed. The woman begged piteously to be spared, but was given twenty-five lashes, when [illegible]. While the victims were un- tied they fell to the ground and were left there, being taken away by friends.

Brazilian Politics.

NEW YORK, April 18.—A Rio Janeiro letter says: The new ministry have al- ready made public through a semi-offi- cial organ that the principal and more immediate objects in their programme will be the abolition of slavery this year and measures for the improvement of the finance and [illegible] cy of the country. The wholesale emancipatory movement, which was initiated last December in the province of San Paulo has already pro- duced the freedom of 50,000 of its 280,- 000 slaves.

Breakfast for the Poor.

LONDON, April 18.—The case of Mr Peters against Mr Bradlaugh for £500 damages for libel in stating that lord Salisbury gave him (Peters) twenty five pounds to promote a meeting of working men in Trafalgar square, came up to-day. Lord Salisbury testified that the money was given Peters to provide a free break- fast for starving poor. A verdict was awarded the plaintiff of three hundred pounds.

Ohio Republicans.

DAYTON, Ohio, April 18.—The Ohio republican state convention effected a temporary organization by electing ex- Speaker Keifer chairman. Resolutions [illegible] Conkling's death were passed. Governor Foraker makes a speech in which he pledged his allegiance to Sher- man. Congressman Butterworth spoke and the convention adjourned until to- morrow.

THE KAISER DOOMED.

Alarming Reports of Emperor Fred- erick's Condition.

Little Reliance Placed on Temporary Improvement.

Private Dispatches Less Encourag- ing than Official.

The Empress Calls on French Doc- tors for Advice.

A Fatal Termination Expected.

NEW YORK, April 18. The Times' copyright cable from London says re- ports of improvement in the Kaiser's condition are not regarded here as im- portant. The opinion is settled that he will not live but the week. It was stated during the day that Prince of Wales had a [illegible] telegram saying that a fatal termination was looked for at any hour, but there [illegible] by con- firmation of this.

The Emperor's Condition.

BERLIN, 9 a. m., April 18. The im- provement in the condition of the em- peror continued yesterday evening, al- though his fever increased a little. 10 a. m. The emperor had a tolerably good night. His sleep was somewhat interrupted by coughing. The fever has not [illegible].

Professor Bergmann thinks [illegible] that at the request of Empress Victoria the French doctors Ocan and Faunbl and the English doctor Evans will proceed to Charlottenburg to examine the emperor.

LONDON, April 19.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Ber- lin, timed 5 p. m., says the condition of the emperor is less satisfactory. It is re- ported that blood-poisoning has super- vened and that his temperature has in- creased. The hopeful feeling of the morning has been replaced by a feeling of despondency.

BERLIN, 11 p. m., April 18. The condition of the emperor is almost the same as it was yesterday. The physi- cians held a consultation this morning. Bismarck visited the emperor at 11 o'clock. The crown prince slept at Ber- [illegible]. This morning he reviewed the troops in Tempelhofer field. He was enthusiastically greeted in Unter den Linden where the troops defiled.

BERLIN, April 19, 1:30 p. m. The con- sultation held by the physicians this morning showed that the emperor's con- dition was less satisfactory than yester- day; but better than last evening. Fever- ish symptoms were indicated last even- ing. The emperor's temperature rose to 39½ degrees Celsius. To-day it has fallen to 38 4-5 degrees. During the night Dr. Howell inserted a tube canula. The physicians have again sounded the emperor's lungs and found that they are not affected. This strengthens the opin- ion that no abscess has formed in the bronches. There was a great stir on the streets to-day owing to the circulation of a report that the emperor intended to drive to Berlin from Charlottenburg. There was much disappointment mani- fested upon the rumor proving ground- less. The emperor appeared at his win- dow at Charlottenburg castle at 12:45 and was enthusiastically greeted by the crowds that had assembled. Bismarck's visit this morning lasted an hour.

BERLIN, April 18. The tube in the emperor's throat was skillfully changed by Dr. Howell without assistance. The new tube gave the emperor much relief. He bears his illness admirably and in spite of all rules the greatest interest in state affairs.

City Life in Danger.

BERLIN, April 19, 1 a. m. The con- dition of Emperor Frederick has [illegible] and [illegible] considered in danger.

The German Love Match.

LONDON, April 18.—Labouchere says Princess Victoria, of Prussia, must be a very inflammable damsel if she has cher- ished a life-long affection for Prince Alexander, as he finally quitted Berlin when he was only thirteen. During the last nine years they have never met ex- cept three days at Darmstadt, in the spring of 1884, when the Princess Vic- toria of Hesse was married to Prince Louis of Battenburg. Under the circum- stances it is difficult to understand the frantic passion with which she is al- leged to be inspired, and I should think that Prince Alexander, who has always kept a keen eye on the main chance, is probably in love chiefly with the advantage of an alliance with the royal families of Rus- sia and England, to say nothing of the handsome fortune which Emperor Fred- erick would no doubt endeavor to settle upon his daughter, who would fare badly if she had to depend on the liberality of her eldest brother. If this morganatic marriage ever takes place I venture to predict that Prince and Princess Alex- ander will pass a great deal of their time in England. An attempt is being made here to create the impression that Bis- marck is acting improperly in insisting that the policy of the German empire should be his policy, or that he must cease to be German chancellor. In this he is perfectly justified. Here a minis- ter would resign at once if a monarch were to decline to act on his views. With us the minister is practically the servant of the nation.

The French Situation.

PARIS, April 18.—The Figaro says General Boulanger will shortly issue a significant political manifesto in which he will propose revision of the constitu- tion. The League of Patriots have con- gratulated Boulanger upon his election to the chamber of deputies from the de- partment of Nord. Another attempt was made last night to hold an oppor- tunist meeting at Boulogne, but the Boulangists again interfered and forced suspension of the gathering.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 18.—The Mos- cow Gazette in an article on the French situation says. It is greatly to Russia's interest that France should be strong, no matter through whom.

Sentence Commuted.

DENVER, April 18.—Upon the recom- mendation of the state board of peniten- tiary commissioners, Governor Adams to- day commuted the sentence of John Hodges, in 1877 sentenced to the peni- tentiary for 25 years from Fremont county, for the murder of John Musser, to twelve years. Hodges' sentence will expire in about three months.

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1888

The police magistrate fined a man for drunkenness yesterday.

The Smith-Harmond excursion will arrive at Manitou May 2d.

Mr. Ed. Morgan is the newly elected chief of the Colorado City fire department.

The latest entries for the foot races are Mr. F. H. A. Lyle, of last year's polo team, and Mr. John Hamilton.

The Consolidated Stationery company have just received a fine assortment of the latest novelties in note paper, picture mouldings, etc.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union telegraph office for Henry T. Williams, Andy B. Wright and George W. Birkhimer.

By a notice in another column it will be seen that bids are solicited for the new Congregational church. Plans can be seen at the office of Pease & Barber.

Badito Legion No. 16, Select Knights A. O. U. W., will hold a regular meeting at 7:30 this evening. Members and visiting comrades are requested to attend.

The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad company have just put two arc lights near the passenger depot, which will be lighted with incandescent lights.

Mr. E. H. Russell of Granger is making preparations to enlarge his hotel in order to accommodate the great rush to that place on account of the building of the Rock Island.

A business meeting of the Colorado Springs Gun club for election of officers and the transaction of other business will be held at the office of the First National bank this afternoon at half past three o'clock.

Mrs. Totten has purchased from Mr. John Baibert, through Tutt, McDaniel & Co., real estate agency, the house and lot on the corner of Monument and Mesa streets, and also will greatly improve.

The opera house orchestra will furnish music for the dance which will be given next Friday evening in the city hall by the Pioneer's band. The proceeds of the dance will be given to Mr. G. S. Taylor, who is on the sick list.

Mr. D. Cal McMillan, a wealthy young banker of Chattanooga, Tennessee, accompanied by his wife and cousin, Miss Kate Lyle, are in the city, at the Alamo, en route home from California. They may remain in Colorado several weeks.

Many of our people will remember the charming little Patti Rosa, who appeared on our city last season, and will play another engagement in our opera house next Monday evening. Patti Rosa is a great favorite with Lotta and is the only one who has permission to appear in any of Lotta's plays. She will no doubt draw a large house.

On the fourth page will be seen an advertisement announcing an allotment sale by Messrs. Tutt, McDaniel & Co. of a portion of the new platting of Grand View. The advertisement will doubtless be read with interest by those desiring to make investment in the manner indicated. The property is certainly beautifully located, and fortunately so with reference to water for both domestic and irrigating purposes.

The Raymond & Whitcomb Excursion bureau, of Boston, has arranged four excursions to Colorado resorts to occur during the coming summer. The excursions will leave Boston July 23, August 20, September 3 and October 11, coming from Chicago to Pueblo over the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, and then going to Silverton, Ouray and to Manitou and Denver over the Rio Grande, returning east over the Union Pacific.

Yesterday's issue of the Denver Republican contained the following special dispatch from Washington: "The board of Indian commissioners reported adverse to the claim of H. M. Teach of El Paso county, Colorado, for $12,000 damages sustained in 1868 from the Arapahoe Indians. The board find that the claimant had sixty-seven, six mules, twenty one colts and one stallion, but as to the claim, was not presented within the limitation fixed by law, and that the amount of loss must be left to the final determination of congress."

The stock of the Antlers grounds has been greatly improved by cutting off some five feet from the corners. This was done to accommodate the cyclemen, who will now have no difficulty in spinning around the corners as fast as they please. Sprayer, sprinkler and roller are kept at work yet, and by tonight Mr. Davidson, of the College Park conservatory, will have it down fine. The back stop, with two dressing rooms, will be put upto-day and by to-morrow night all the buildings will have a neat coat of paint.

Mr. E. M. Campbell, a wealthy cattleman of Wichita, Kas., and a friend of City Marshal Dana, who has been in the city since last Saturday, returned to his home yesterday. Mr. Campbell was greatly pleased with his visit to Colorado Springs, and will return with his family in about two months. He has lately visited several of the large cities of the state, where he disposed of some of his corn-fed cattle. Mr. T. S. Brigham, of this city, accompanied him to Wichita for the purpose of purchasing some of his cattle for this market.

Yesterday's issue of the Denver News contained the following: "President R. R. Cable, of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, returned to Chicago last night. He held a conference with General Manager Smith, of the Rio Grande, yesterday afternoon, and is understood to have arranged the contract between his road and the Rio Grande for hauling of Rock Island cars from Colorado Springs to Denver. President Cable told a News reporter that the road would be pushed to Colorado Springs as rapidly as possible and that he hoped that his good opinion of Colorado would be realized."

The young men who have given money and time to the enclosure of the base ball grounds, and the building of the grand stand have done for the city what has been greatly desired for a long time. The grounds will be opened to the public on Friday with an excellent list of athletic sports and the promoters should receive a liberal support. We learn that over two hundred dollars, in the shape of [illegible] the actual cost of the exhibition to take place on Friday, and this is entirely outside of permanent improvements, which will cost some fifteen hundred dollars. The public should appreciate these efforts and patronize the grounds. The sports are all honest and manly and will be contested by home talent, of which we have been proud in the past.

A Card.

Having noticed in the city council proceedings of Monday night that several votes were cast for me for the office of city marshal, I desire to publicly state that I was not and am not a candidate for the position. Thanking my friends in the council for this evidence of their friendship, I am respectfully,

JAMES McCANN.

A Domestic Tragedy.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 18.—A spec- ial to the Intelligencer from Cool- says: A report has reached here that a man in Calhoun county who was away selling cattle on returning home late on Wednesday, in company with a peddler discovered a light in his house and on looking in saw his wife and three children lying dead on the floor. He also saw his brother in the room. The peddler drew his revolver and was told to make no noise at the back of the house. The men inside rushed out and three of them were killed outright, the fourth being badly wounded. It is impossible at pres- ent to verify the story, but the man who brought it is considered reliable.

Agricultural Legislation.

Washington, April 18.—The house committee on agriculture at its meeting this morning adopted resolutions of thanks for journey on the recent tour and investigation and agreed to take up the bill for that action at the next meeting one week from to-day. The committee also fixed Saturday for a hearing of arguments on the Hatch-Faloe bills, prohibiting specu- lation in farm products on boards of trade. The question of the constitu- tionality of the propositions will be argued by attorneys representing the leading boards of trade of the country.

Switchmen Go Out.

Chicago, April 18.—The switchmen who went out on the south branch yards of the Northwestern road struck to-night and the eight or ten engines which usually work in the yards along Sixteenth street from the river to West- ern Avenue were idle. The principal grievance of the men was stated to be a change in yardmasters. So far as known the matter has no connection with the Burlington trouble. Thirty men are out.

Base Ball.

At Philadelphia—Athletics 4, Baltimore 6.

At Brooklyn—Brooklyn 10, Cleveland 1.

At Kansas City—Kansas City 3, Cincinnati 10.

This is the first game of the American association season here.

Damage by Flood.

Winona, Minn., April 18.—The loss to the manufacturing interests of this city by the flood is estimated at $100,000. One mill alone lost 8,000 feet of logs valued at $150,000, making the loss to the lumbering interest alone $200,000. The river is four miles wide here. At Trempeleau, Wis., while five Indians were endeavoring to drag a canoe across a raft of logs, the logs parted and all were drowned.

The Louisiana Election.

New Orleans, April 18.—As reported last night Nicholls and the rest of the democratic state ticket were elected by from 20,000 to 50,000 majority. The count in the city is progressing slowly. Enough is known however to show al- most beyond doubt that the young Mon's democratic ticket has been generally suc- cessful.

Another Attempt.

Berlin, April 18.—In the house of commons this afternoon Right Hon. Ed- ward Hanerage moved the passage of a bill to legalize marriage with a deceased wife's sister. The motion occasioned a sharp debate but was finally carried by a vote of 239 to 182.

A Town Purter Water.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 18.—The vil- lage of Fremont is almost under water. Stores are closed, the goods having been removed to places of safety. Families have taken to the upper stories of their houses.

Offered the Presidency.

Denver, April 18.—A Washington special to the Times, says: Rev. Wil- liam P. Sheaun, of Baltimore, has re- ceived an offer of the presidency of Col- orado college at Colorado Springs, and will probably accept.

The Brewers' Lockout.

New York, April 18.—The secretary of the Master Brewers' association said to-day that 2,000 men now at work, of which 1,228 were old men. The number locked out Monday was about 5,000.

COLORADO RATES.

Lower Rates from the East Go Into Effect To-day.

A Cut Made Under the Fort Worth Reduction.

The House Votes to Establish a Department of Labor.

A Bear Speculator in Grain Badly Squeezed.

Colorado Traffic Rates.

Chicago, April 18.—A reduction of through rates from New York, Chicago, St. Louis and the Missouri river to Colo- rado points goes into effect to-morrow on all railroads. This is the result of a meeting of managers at Kansas City on Tuesday, the object being to meet com- petition of the new Ft. Worth and Den- ver road, which is connecting with the Morgan line of steamers at Galveston made through rates from New York to Denver about 25 per cent. below those of the transcontinental routes. Under the new arrangement the rate on first- class freight from Chicago to Colorado points will be $1.80 instead of $2.45, and a proportional reduction is made on other classes. Lumbers rates will be 50 cents from Chicago and 25 cents from the Missouri river. The new rates ap- ply to [illegible] ness.

Pattern Congress.

SENATE.

Washington, April 18. In the senate an adverse report was made from the committee on foreign relations on Rid- dleberger's motion for consideration of the fisheries treaty in open session. It is understood this action was taken on a motion by Frye, that Edmunds, chair- man of the sub-committee on fisheries, be instructed to report the treaty back to the senate with the opinion of the committee that it ought not to be rati- fied, and that he be requested to secure as prompt action as possible upon it.

The land forfeiture bill was then taken as unfinished business, and at 2 o'clock the Dakota bill came up and Sherman took the floor in support of the bill. He re- plied in an impassioned manner to Mr. Vest's allusions to unfair methods in the election of Presidt Hayes. He assert- ed that every suspicion ever cast upon the integrity of that proceeding had been repelled, and that it stood in history as a matter in which the republican party could not be impeached.

Sherman showed by the vote in the senate that the electoral commission bill was not a republican but a democratic measure. Twenty-six democrats had voted for it and only twenty-one republi- cans. Had the vote stood [illegible] it would fourteen republicans, including himself, and one democrat (Mr. Eaton of Con- necticut). Democrats were therefore precluded from assailing the measure. He declared his full conviction that Hayes had been fairly and legally elect- ed, and that it by some hocus pocus Tilden had been inaugurated he would have been illegally elected. He explained the incongruity of Packard not getting the governorship of Louisiana by show- ing that that was subject to local laws and decision, and declared his convic- tion that Packard had been illegally de- prived of his office.

HOUSE.

Belmont introduced a bill to prohibit the coming of Chinese laborers into the United States. Referred.

The conference report upon the bill authorizing the president to arrange a conference between the United States and South and Central American republics, Hayti, San Domingo and the em- pire of Brazil (Townshend's zollverein measure) was agreed to.

The bill to establish a department of labor was passed.

The bill to create boards of arbitration for the settlement of controversies and differences between inter-state com- mon carriers and their employes was considered in committee of the whole.

O'Neill briefly explained the provi- sions of the measure.

Parker of New York and others op- posed the bill as being weak and insuffi- cient.

Buchanan and others favored it. The committee had avoided providing for en- forced arbitration because it meant en- forced awards, and this was going too far. The debate finally drifted into a tariff discussion which continued some little time. Finally on motion of Can- non the sixth section, which provides for the appointment by the president of boards of arbitration, was amended by substituting the words "commissioners" for "arbitrators" and "decision" for "award."

The committee rose and the house ad- journed.

A Speculator Squeezed.

St. Louis, April 18.—Mose Fraley, a leading speculator in St. Louis grain markets, announced his inability to meet further margins, and is now on the floor settling his deals. Last night he stated to friends that he had put up $560,000 in cash and could be unable to put up more. Checks given yesterday after banking hours failed to pass the clearing house, but to-day Fraley said funds were forthcoming to take them up. He has been the leading bear of the market in the past week, and is short in large quan- tities of all grains. The failure is for more than half a million. Fraley says he will pay dollar for dollar.

There was quite a flurry on 'change this morning when it was announced that Moses Fraley was endeavoring to make a settlement. It was learned that he was short about two million bushels of May corn in St. Louis, and two and one half million short in Chicago, and about three million and one half short on July wheat in St. Louis and Chicago, having sold when the market advanced to 44¼ and 94¼ respectively while this morning it was 52¾ and 84¾ respectively. He effect- ed his settlement at 52 cents for corn and 83¾ to 84 for wheat, and at 11 o'clock an- nounced that he was out both in St. Louis and Chicago.

In the wheat deal he was short to Gen D. P. Grier about half a million bushels of corn, and when asked for a settlement he was offered 3¼ cents below Chicago prices. The usual difference approaches 2 cents. When Fraley appeared in the pit he found a disposition on the part of some of the bulls to bid up, and it was freely stated that an effort was being made to squeeze him to death. General Grier declared that he had nothing to do with such a move. He said he was com- pelled to follow the market as he was "long" and "short" in Chicago and was

THE KAISER DOOMED.

Alarming Reports of Emperor Frederick's Condition.

Little Reliance Placed on Temporary Improvement.

Private Despatches Less Encouraging than Official.

The Empress Calls on French Doctors for Advice.

A Fatal Termination Expected.

New York, April 18.—The Times correspondent cabled from London says: re- ports of improvement in the Kaiser's condition are not regarded here as im- portant. The opinion is settled that he will not live out the week. It was stated during the day that Prince of Wales had a Berlin telegram, saying that a fatal termination was looked for at any hour but there has been no con- firmation of this.

The Emperor's Condition.

Berlin, 9 a. m., April 18.—The im- provement in the condition of the em- peror continued yesterday evening, al- though his fever increased a little.

10 a. m.—He rested [illegible] tolerably good night. His sleep was somewhat disturbed by coughing. The fever has not yet disappeared.

Paris, April 18.—The Gaulois says that at the request of Empress Victoria the French doctors Pean and Fauvel and Sir English doctor Lennox will proceed to Charlottenburg to examine the emperor.

London, April 18.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Ber- lin [illegible] says the condition of the emperor is less satisfactory. It is re- ported that bland poisoning has super- vened and that his temperature has in- creased. The hopeful feeling of the morning has been replaced by a feeling of despondency.

Berlin, 1:12 p. m., April 18. The condition of the emperor is almost the same as it was yesterday. The physi- cians held a consultation this morning. Bismarck visited the emperor at 11 o'clock. The crown prince slept at Ber- [illegible] night. This morning he reviewed the troops in Tempelhofer field. He was enthusiastically greeted in Unter den Linden where the troops [illegible]

Berlin, April 18, 1:28 p. m. The con- sultation held by the physicians this morning showed that the emperor's con- dition was less satisfactory than yester- day. Later than last evening. Pyrexia symptoms were indicated last evening. The emperor's temperature rose to degrees Tuesday it was fell- en to 38 4-5 degrees. During the night Dr. Hovell inserted a wide canula. The physicians have again sounded the emperor's lungs and found that they are not affected. This strengthens the opin- ion that no abscess has formed in the trachea. There was a great stir on the streets to-day owing to the circulation of a report that the emperor intended to drive to Berlin from Charlottenburg. There was much disappointment mani- fested upon the rumor proving ground- less. The emperor appeared at his win- dow at Charlottenburg castle at 12.45 and was enthusiastically greeted by the crowds that had assembled. Bismarck's visit this morning lasted an hour.

Berlin, April 18. The tube in the emperor's throat was skillfully changed by Dr. Hovell without assistance. The new tube gave the emperor much relief. He bears his illness admirably and in spite of all takes the greatest interest in state affairs.

HIS LIFE IN DANGER.

Berlin, April 19, 1 a. m.—The con- dition of Emperor Frederick has changed for the worse. His life is con- sidered in danger.

The German Love Match.

London, April 18.—Labouchere says Princess Victoria, of Prussia, must be a very inflammable damsel if she has cher- ished a life long affection for Prince Alexander, as he finally quitted Berlin when he was only thirteen. During the last nine years they have never met ex- cept three days at Darmstadt in the spring of 1884, when the Princess Vic- toria of Hesse was married to Prince Louis of Battenburg. Under the circum- stances it is difficult to understand the frantic passion with which she is al- leged to be inspired, and I should think that Prince Alexander who has always kept a keen eye on the main chance, is probably in love chiefly with the advantage of an alliance with the royal families of Rus- sia and England, to say nothing of the handsome fortune which Emperor Fred- erick would no doubt endow on his child upon his daughter, who would face badly if she had to depend [illegible] on the liberality of her eldest brother. If this morganatic marriage ever takes place I venture to predict that Prince and Princess Alex- ander will pass a great deal of their time in England. An attempt is being made here to create the impression that Bis- marck is acting improperly in insisting that the policy of the German empire should be his policy, or that he must cease to be German Chancellor. In this he is perfectly justified. Both a minis- ter would resign at once if a monarch were to decline to act on his views. With us the minister is practically the servant of the nation.

The French Situation.

Paris, April 18.—The Figaro says General Boulanger will shortly issue a significant political manifesto in which he will propose revision of the constitu- tion. The League of Patriots have con- gratulated Boulanger upon his election to the chamber of deputies from the de- partment of Nord. Another attempt was made last night to hold an oppor- tunist meeting at Bordeaux, but the Boulangists again interfered and forced suspension of the gathering.

St. Petersburg, April 18.—The Mos- cow Gazette in an article on the French situation says: It is greatly to Russia's interest that France should be strong, a matter through whom.

Sentence Commuted.

Denver, April 18.—Upon the recom- mendation of the state board of peniten- tiary commissioners, Governor Adams to-day commuted the sentence of John Hodges, in 1877 sentenced to the peni- tentiary for 25 years, from Fremont county, for the murder of John Musser, to twelve years. Hodges' sentence will expire in about three months.

Trouble Settled.

New York, April 18.—A Times special from Albany, Ind., says: A band of "White Caps" last night took James Siebers, Robert Brumfield and Mrs. Nancy Wilson from the woman's house, stripped them and tied them to a tree. The men were given 125 lashes each, the blood being drawn at every stroke. The men fainted several times but water was thrown on them and they were revived, only to be again lashed. The woman begged piteously to be spared, but was given twenty five lashes when she fainted. When the victims were un- tied they fell to the ground and were left there, being taken away by friends.

Brazilian Politics.

New York, April 18.—A Rio Janeiro letter says: The new ministry have al- ready made public through a semi-offi- cial organ that the principal and more immediate objects in their programme will be the abolition of slavery this year and measures for the improvement of the finance and currency of the country. The wholesale emancipatory movement, which was initiated last December in the province of San Paulo, has already pro- duced the freedom of 70,000 of its 280,- 000 slaves.

Breakfast for the Poor.

London, April 18.—The case of Mc- Peters against Mr Bradlaugh for £200 damages for libel in stating that Lord Salisbury gave him (Peters) twenty five pounds to promote a meeting of working- men in Trafalgar square came up to-day. Lord Salisbury testified that the money was given Peters to provide a free break- fast for starving poor. A verdict was awarded the plaintiff of three hundred pounds.

Ohio Republicans.

Dayton, Ohio, April 18.—The Ohio republican state convention effected a temporary organization by electing ex Speaker Keifer chairman. Resolutions anent Conkling's death were passed. Governor Foraker made a speech in which he pledged his allegiance to Sher- man. Congressman Butterworth spoke and the convention adjourned until to- morrow.

E. W. ZIEGLER,
Manager of the Gazette.

A few days ago we made some comments on high license in New York. Mr. Barber has written us a communication which we publish on this subject. The fourth point raised by Mr. Barber is not confirmed by the New York state election. In that election the liquor men were all opposed to the high license, and for this reason, the republican party was defeated at the polls. The fact is that the liquor men are simply selfish. If the issue is between prohibition and high license, they are for high license. But if the issue is between high license and no license, they are for no license. They are for the possible law that will give them the least restraint.

By the appointment of Mr. Lovering to be United States marshal for the district of Massachusetts, general Banks practically ends his political career. His career has, perhaps, been used more frequently to fire the ambition of the poor American boy than that of any other man except Lincoln. He received a very meager education in the public schools. Since about twelve years of age, he has earned his own living, beginning as bobbin boy. He worked hard and finally entered the profession of law. His political career began in 1849, at the age of thirty-three, when he was elected a member of the Massachusetts legislature. From that time until the present, covering a period of almost forty years, he may be said never to have been out of office. Until the war, his political advance was steady. He served in the Massachusetts legislature four years, the latter two of which he was speaker of the house. During this time he was elected to the state senate but declined the election. In 1853 he was a member of the Massachusetts constitutional convention and was elected its president. The same year he was elected to congress where he served in the lower house from 1853 to 1857. During his second term he was elected speaker of the house. This is a position that no other man with so short a service in the house and with so little national reputation ever achieved. He resigned his seat in the house to become governor of Massachusetts, which position he held until the 1st of January, 1861. Satisfied with political honors, he took the position of president of the Illinois Central at that time the proudest railroad position in the country. He gave up this position to enter the army, where he served during the entire war, with rank never less than that of major general of volunteers. As soon as the war was over, he entered the house again and served there, with the exception of one term, until he took his position as United States marshal for the district of Massachusetts. During his services in the house, he was for many years chairman of the committee on foreign relations and was always a conspicuous and influential member. Strange to say, however, after an active career, so long and so varied, he has made very little impression on his country. He seemed to have had a rare faculty of winning friends, and his personal bearing was always dignified and courteous. For these reasons he was preferred to abler men. He occupied these high positions during a time when many of our public men yielded to the temptations that beset them, but no charge was ever made against his integrity.

The Denver World in a bright article on Tuesday afternoon, defends Denver from the charge of selfishness. On the whole, the defense, though incomplete, is a very good one. But it is not a vindication. The cause of this opposition to Denver is quite largely due to the extreme selfishness and foolishness of the Denver press. For example, when the Rock Island proposed to build to this point in Colorado, one of the Denver papers called on the Denver merchants to boycott this road if it would not change the terminus from Colorado Springs to Denver. Somewhat of the same bulldozing was tried on the Missouri Pacific. This is not fair competition, but shows a meanness and selfishness that no respectable community should indulge in. It would be possible to mention a great many other instances of the same character. When Denver obtains any advantage by fair competition, we are always very glad to congratulate her. Denver ought also to have the same kind feeling towards some of her smaller and weaker rivals. The Denver World is very much mistaken in stating how much other parts of the state have been benefited by Denver. She has not helped any of us though we have poured our gains into her lap. The World says Denver has given us all the railroads. This is not true. The Denver & Rio Grande system originated with the founders of Colorado Springs, and until lost the general office of the railroad was in this city. No Denver capital was ever put in the road and no Denver citizen was prominent in the management of the road in its early history. Besides this, the Colorado Midland was an enterprise started and fostered entirely by Colorado Springs people, who invested a large amount of capital in it. If we take the trackage of local roads, it will be found that Colorado Springs capital and Colorado Springs brains have furnished us three miles of road to one furnished by Denver capital and brains. These roads have all been of very material help to Denver and we are glad of it. The great boom in real estate of '86 and the early part of '87 was due quite largely to the construction of the Midland. It can be said of Denver capital, however, that it has given this state a short route to the sea. This is a blessing from which we all reap a benefit. The rivalry which has existed in the past ought to cease. Each city has its own special advantages and should reap the benefit. We are all more or less dependent upon each other and we can accomplish more by working together for the development and growth of Colorado than by continual fighting and bickering.

CONKLING.

Perhaps no fact showed the great hold Conkling had on the political life of the country, as the deep and universal sympathy elicited by his illness. He had been out of active political life for eight years, and this is long enough for able men to be forgotten. Fisk, Fenton, Morgan and Seymour have all recently died. They were all contemporaries of Conkling in New York, and occupied equally high positions. But their deaths hardly excited passing comment. What gave Conkling his great hold, it is difficult to say. He was not an unselfish man in politics because his interest in them ceased when he left office. He was true to his friends in a way, but these friends were always compelled to place Conkling's ambition before their own. He was not a great statesman because in the great opportunity he had to shape legislation. During the dark and reconstruction periods he made no great impression on our legislation. Still he held a high position among the senators who did. He was not profoundly interested in the great principles of government. His greatest fights were over patronage and appointments to office. His resignation and retirement from political life were caused by a defeat in a contest over an appointment. He was at all times a partisan and used patronage. His ascendency in New York politics was not obtained until after he had beaten Fenton in the control of the machine. Until Grant became president Fenton was the stronger. Grant sided with Conkling and Fenton went to the wall. He was not a great orator. His style was bombastic and involved. His speeches will never be collected and published as were those of Seward because the subject matter is not valuable, nor was the way of putting his thoughts commendable. He was the best stump speaker of his day, but this depended more on his personality than the thought or diction of his speech. He had splendid powers of sarcasm, but this was all that was great in his speeches. Yet, notwithstanding the above, he was the greatest personality in politics since the war. It is difficult to explain, but it is a fact. It is true that he came from the greatest state in the union, that in this state he was the great domineering power of the stronger party. But it was at a time when either there were no strong men or the strong men were out of politics. He was also the strongest person in Grant's administration, but his was an influence that could only be strong with such an administration. With the two that followed he could not even remain on speaking terms. He was in the habit of treating Grant's cabinet officers as his lackeys. When this was not possible under Hayes and Garfield, he sulked and spoke of the men of the White house. When the republicans were in power he was a good administration republican so long as he could control the patronage, but when he could not he was a worse enemy than a democrat. He never took a part in a political campaign that he was not to receive a personal benefit from unless that of 1880 be an exception. Even then he expected more reward than the success of his party gave him, because when his personal demands were not acceded to he played a "star" part in the tragedy ending with the death of Garfield. We look in vain in his career when in public life for any noble, generous act of sacrifice to his country or his party. In the seven years he has been out of public life, though the party that honored him needed his help and though the principles of that party which should have stirred his patriotic devotion were imperilled, he never once lifted his hands to help his party or vindicate the principles that concerned the prosperity and perpetuity of our government.

Yet his splendid personality made him a force in politics, so that though out of them for seven years his death has left a void. He must have had great sources of power. Among those were his frankness and sincerity. No enemy ever received an unmanly thrust from him. No friend ever had a promise that was not honored. He was never suspected of venality. This is saying a good deal considering the period he was in the senate. He hated deceit and dishonesty. He never pretended to be better than he was. He never condescended to defend himself from personal attack. All this can be said of him with truth, and for this he deserved honor as a man.

...Hide License in New York.

COLORADO SPRINGS, ... 10, 1888.

To the Editor of the Gazette:

DEAR SIR: In your editorial of this morning on the republican vote for high license in New York you blame the prohibitionists for their opposition. Allow me to say that we are willing to bear any blame that may be heaped on us by the advocates of high license, as we believe it is not only as bad but worse than low license.

Permit me to remind you and your readers of ... that we are determined to fight the high license theory.

1st. We do not believe that a wrong is made any less wrong by high license, and we are not in favor of ... that good may come.

2nd. High license is a greater bribe on the public conscience.

3rd. We do not believe that high license carries the vote of liquor.

4th. High license is advocated by the liquor business. Mr. Illi..., president of ... distillery company in the high-license state of Nebraska, says in a letter to the trade that the high license law is the grandest law ever made for the liquor business—and like the Irishman who was always against the government we think it perfectly safe to be on the opposite side to the liquor dealers on any question touching the temperance issue.

Yours respectfully,

THOS. BAIRD.

THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, APRIL 10, 1884.

Three men were fined for drunkenness yesterday.

A man was fined for fast driving by the police magistrate yesterday.

Granger is having quite a boom and the town is crowded with graders.

Mr. Max Weniger of Manitou is lying very dangerously ill at his residence.

A regular meeting of the board of trade will be held to-morrow evening.

Remember the grand opening of the Athletic grounds to-morrow afternoon.

Mr. D. G. Jenkins of Gaylord, Kas., arrived in the city yesterday and will probably make this his home.

The El Paso county Sunday School convention will be held on Thursday and Friday, May 14th and 15th.

We call attention to the change in the time table of the Denver, Texas and Gulf railroad, which appears this morning.

E. M. Ludwig, who has been connected with the Chicago Lumber company, in Kansas, has accepted a position with the company at this place.

There will be a stated conclave of Pike's Peak commandery, No. 6 this evening at half past seven o'clock. All Sir Knights are cordially invited.

The Wichita Falls (Texas) Herald in its issue of the 19th inst. contains a very flattering notice of the visit of the Texas excursionists to this city and Manitou.

Mr. W. G. Harvey, formerly of Des Moines, Iowa, has been appointed agent of the Denver, Texas and Gulf railroad in this city, to succeed Mr. B. D. Allen.

The residence property of L. H. Coster, on Klowa street, was sold yesterday through the real estate agency of Dwinell & McIntyre to Mrs. Lydia Kenney for $4000.

Mr. M. Solomon filed yesterday with the county clerk a plat of Arcondale lying between Manitou and Colorado City. The size of the lots are 50x130 feet. Mr. A. H. Coffman has the agency for the sale of these lots.

Passenger Agent Nye of the Midland has just issued a descriptive article on Glenwood Springs. The illustrations are very fine, and his production will prove a good advertisement for the Pike's Peak route.

The committee of the city council which was appointed to ascertain if the council could legally declare the Stevens-Merrill aldermanic contest, have decided that the council has that power, and will so report next Monday night.

H. W. Gibson & Co., at the old Pike's Peak Dry Goods emporium, have just received one of the handsomest and most unique lines of white goods ever brought to the city. The stock was purchased by Mr. Edward Ferris and includes all the latest imported styles.

Owing to the burning of the bridge over Sand creek, on the Denver, Texas and Gulf railroad, between this city and Manitou Junction, the trains on that road were somewhat delayed yesterday. A new bridge was completed last night and trains will be run on time to-day.

Mr. J. J. Estey, the celebrated organ manufacturer, and wife, of Brattleboro, Vermont; Hon. William Jennison of Detroit, judge of the Wayne county circuit court, and Dr. B. F. Goodrich of Akron, Ohio, president of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber company, are among the recent arrivals at the Barker house, Manitou.

General Manager C. F. Meek of the Denver, Texas and Gulf railroad, is expected to arrive in the city to-day. His visit is for the purpose of considering some improvements which the company contemplate making here, and also to increase the efficiency of the passenger and freight service.

The public schools of Manitou will close for the summer vacation to-morrow afternoon. In the evening the annual anniversary exercises will be held in the Congregational church. These exercises will consist of music, dialogues, recitations, etc. An admission fee of fifteen cents will be charged to the entertainment.

A meeting of the tax payers of Manitou will be held on May 7th to take into consideration the question of building a new school house and of disposing of the house now in use. It is stated that the present building is entirely too inadequate, and that the demand for larger rooms is urgent and pressing.

At the special meeting of the Colorado Springs Gun club, held yesterday afternoon, the following officers were elected: President, Mr. J. A. Hayes jr.; vice president, J. S. Stevens; secretary and treasurer, Henry E. Woodruff. There will be a regular shoot of the club on the grounds west of the Monument, on Saturday afternoon, April 21st, at three o'clock.

On Tuesday afternoon an employee on the ranch of Mr. G. W. Frost, eight miles southwest of Florissant, had his right leg broken above the ankle. Just how the accident happened is not known. He had fallen out of the wagon in which he was riding for the purpose of closing a gate. In some way his foot became entangled in one of the wheels and was broken. He was taken to the ranch and medical aid was summoned from Florissant.

The closing lecture in the course for the benefit of the free reading room and library will be given next Monday night at the Methodist church at 8 o'clock. The lecture will be Mr. H. B. Chamberlin, of Denver and his subject "Paris." The lecture will be illustrated by abundant stereopticon views. The lecture has been unavoidable delayed beyond the date first set, but we are glad to announce that it will be duly given as above. Single admission will be twenty-five cents.

Friends of the Firemen's band and the public generally are cordially invited to attend the ball at the city hall on Friday night, the entire proceeds of which will be given to Mr. G. B. Taylor, a member of the band, who was seriously injured several weeks ago and is still unable to attend to his business. This is a worthy object, and the public should respond liberally. The opera house orchestra have volunteered their services gratis and will furnish the music. It is hoped there will be a large attendance and a good time is assured. On the same evening other friends of Mr. Taylor will give an old folks party at Armory hall with the same object, to which invitations are also general.

The popular actress, Patti Rosa, who will appear at the opera house next Monday evening, supported by a strong company, is playing a fine engagement in Denver this week at the Tabor Grand. The News of that city, in speaking of Patti Rosa, says: "She is a clever, entertaining little woman in almost anything, and although there is a decided similarity to Lotta's peculiar ingenuousness, particularly in the flaunting of skirts, her imitation in some instances is an improvement on the original. She dances with more grace than Lotta and sings with some regard to musical rules. —a practice that the charming Lotta was never guilty of. She is younger and more attractive than the old-time favorite. If careful of her voice and a study of the possibilities of 'Bob,' without accepting Lotta as a model for the perfect delineation of the character, she will give more satisfaction than Lotta. She has two advantages. Her utility of them will shape her future."

BUSINESS LOCALS.

REAL :- ESTATE, :- LOANS, :- INSURANCE!

Special Attention Given to the Collection of Rent, Interest, Etc., and the Care of Property of Persons Out of Town.

Insurance Carefully Written in First-Class Companies Only

Losses Promptly and Satisfactorily Adjusted.

STRANGERS, and others not posted in our Real Estate Market, often ask the question, "Where can I best invest my money to be sure of Quick and Profitable returns?"

1st. I would say, select a locality where you have the most SUNSHINE, the finest view of our GRAND MOUNTAIN SCENERY, etc.

2nd. See that you locate where you can enjoy the best WATER ADVANTAGES that our city affords. A home without water in this country is a desert, and when I say "BEST WATER ADVANTAGES" I mean not only for irrigating purposes, which is very important, but also for all DOMESTIC PURPOSES. Our water supply at present is limited, and unless recently purchased lots which are now at hand are quickly built upon, where every drop will be used, outside property will be valueless.

3rd. Do not locate where lots are too low to drain—low priced LOTS bring low priced HOUSES and a PALACE surrounded by shanties will never sell. Lots in value—better investments in other ways and secure a lot that will increase in value.

4th. Don't wait until the "Rock Island" comes in and then pay 25 per cent more than present rates.

5th. Lastly, call and see us and we will convince you that "BOULDER HEIGHTS" possesses all the above advantages.

The Granger Land and Town Co.

Now Offers For Sale the Entire

Town Site of Granger,

EL PASO COUNTY, COLORADO.

GRANGER is situated on the line of the Fort Worth, Texas & Gulf R. R., about 16 miles northeast of Colorado Springs, in the center of the best Agricultural District in Colorado. The rainfall is sufficient to perfect good crops, and irrigation is entirely unnecessary. All the available land within a radius of twenty-five miles has been taken up by bona fide settlers, and improvements are rapidly being made on all the occupied land.

Granger has one of the best Town Sites in the State. It commands an extended view in every direction. The site is almost perfectly level, with a slight fall to the southeast. Water is obtainable within 10 feet of the surface on the entire Town Site. The streets are all 80 feet in width and the lots are all 50x150, excepting the business lots, which are 25x150 feet. The town lies on both sides of the railroad. The Surveyed Line of THE CHICAGO AND ROCK ISLAND RAILROAD Runs Parallel with that of the DENVER, TEXAS & GULF RAILROAD through the Center of the Town, and forms a Junction with the latter at this point, and will be the Construction Headquarters of Rock Island Extension in Colorado. Granger is destined to become an important town in the near future by reason of its location. It is an Objective Point on the line of all the Railroads now heading for the Rocky Mountains, and also from the fact that it is [illegible] Pitch and Picturesque Canon, and is reached at a shallow depth. It is an important Shipping point on the D., T. & G. R. R. for a large section of country. In the matter of business handled Granger ranks third on the line of the road.

The lots will be sold on the popular Allotment Plan, as follows:

PRICE: $225.00 Each.

The drawing [illegible] will take place [illegible] on May 1st next, and will be conducted by a competent committee selected by the certificate holders. The company will include in the drawing every fifteenth lot in the entire town site as platted, beginning with lot 1 in each block, reserving only numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 13 and 19 in block 1; number 13 in block 2; numbers 1, 21 and [illegible] in block 12; [illegible] in block 13; number 17 in block 35; numbers 1, 2 and 3 in block 41, and block 22.

All these lots have been sold and deeded. The object in reserving these each alternate lot throughout the entire plat, and selling the other at the low price of $225, when there is not a lot in the entire site but what is well worth $100 (some of the reserved lots above mentioned have been sold at this figure), is to enhance the value of property already reserved by inducing the purchasers to build and improve over the entire plat. After the drawing prices will be advanced on [illegible] It will be for sale for only a limited time at the following places:
